

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
CITY OF TAYLORSVILLE

ORDINANCE NO. 318

REGARDING ELECTION/CAMPAIGN SIGNS IN THE CITY OF TAYLORSVILLE

Temporary signs announcing or relating to an election or political campaign are allowed on the public right-of-way of the City of Taylorsville property, subject to Kentucky Department of Transportation Rules and Regulations regarding state right-of-ways, but shall not be posted earlier than sixty (60) days before the date on which the election is to occur and the sign(s) are to be removed within ten (10) days after the election.

Temporary signs means a sign, including paper, cardboard and/or fabric used for a limited period of time and not permanently mounted.

Penalties: Failure to comply with this Ordinance shall constitute a misdemeanor and any person or entity who violates this Ordinance or fails to comply with any of its requirements shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than ten dollars ($10.00), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) each day such violation continues, with each day of violation being a separate violation. All fines or forfeitures shall incur to the benefit of the City and paid to the City Treasurer and deposited in the City's General Fund.

In addition to the above penalties, the City, at its option, may remove any sign(s) in violation of this Ordinance, in which event the City will hold the sign(s) for ten (10) days from the date of removal; any sign(s) not claimed within the ten (10) days will be destroyed.

Dated this the 5th day of August, 2010.
